

8.30-10.00

Wine and finger food reception

ATTENDANCE AT THIS MEETING QUALIFIES FOR
CME CREDITS

(Please sign in RAMI attendance sheets plus CME credits attendance)

History of the St. Luke's Lecture

The Saint Luke's Lecture is sponsored by the Academy and Saint Luke's Hospital. The lecture is based on work carried out in the field of oncology and is delivered in January of each year. The lecturer is selected by an Academy/Saint Luke's committee and receives a silver medal.

The Academy also presents the Graves Lecture.

Previous presenters of the St. Luke's Lecture

1975 J. Fennelly; 1976 J. F. Murphy; 1977 G. M. Mullins; 1978 M. Moriarty;
1979 P. Skrabanek; 1981 B. Herity; 1982 D. Carney; 1983 M. Duffy;
1984 J. Ennis; 1985 D. O'Donoghue; 1986 S. R. McCann;
1987 C. Mothersill; 1988 B. Hurson; 1989 M. Turner; 1990 G. O'Sullivan;
1991 C. O'Morain; 1993 A. L. Harris; 1993 D. Kelleher; 1994 T. Walsh;
1995 T. F. Gorey; 1996 M. P. Lawler; 1997 J. P. Crown; 1998 P. J. Morrison;
1999 J. Armstrong; 2000 D. Hollywood; 2001 D. Bouchier-Hayes;
2002 E. Gaffney; 2004 P. Redmond

Previous winners of the St. Luke's Young Investigators Award

2004 JC Coffey

Royal Academy of Medicine in Ireland

SAINT LUKE'S
HOSPITAL

The St. Luke's Lecture
&
The St. Luke's Young Investigators Award
Wednesday 26th January 2005

The St. Luke's Lecture is sponsored by the Academy and Saint
Luke's Hospital

Venue: Royal College of Surgeons of Ireland, 123, St. Stephen's
Green, re Street, Dublin 2

Programme

St Luke's Young Investigator Presentations

Precedes the main lecture at 6:30pm

The St Luke's Lecture 2005

7.30-8.30

Mr. Arnold Hill, Consultant Surgeon,
St. Vincent's University Hospital,
Elm Park, Dublin 4

"Molecular Oncology - Current Themes and Future Directions"

8.30pm
Presentation of the Academy silver medal