Michael O' Gorman:
Physician in the Service of Spain, Founder of Modern Medicine in Argentina

By
Susan Wilkinson

Inauguration of the Tribunal of the Protomedicato in Buenos Aires, 1780, Michael O' Gorman in the centre

This lecture will trace the career of Michael O' Gorman, who, although born in Ireland, was a physician in the service of Spain, and was appointed Protomedicato in the Viceroyalty of Rio de la Plata. He established the first medical school there, and is regarded as the founder of modern medicine in Argentina.
