

- 4.30pm Mr T Saddik, Dr E Chacko, Prof L Cassidy
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
A rare retinal finding secondary to vigabatrin in a patient with tuberous sclerosis
- 4.40pm Dr P Timoney, Dr E Chacko, Prof. L Cassidy
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
Retinal findings secondary to type II membranous glomerulonephritis. The abnormal retinal finding of this disease in a 21 years old female patient will be discussed
- 5.30pm SHERRY RECEPTION – RCSI
- 6.00pm Mr Neill Miller (Montgomery Lecture)
Royal College of Surgeons Ireland
Advances in the Diagnosis and Management of Carotid-Cavernous Sinus Fistula

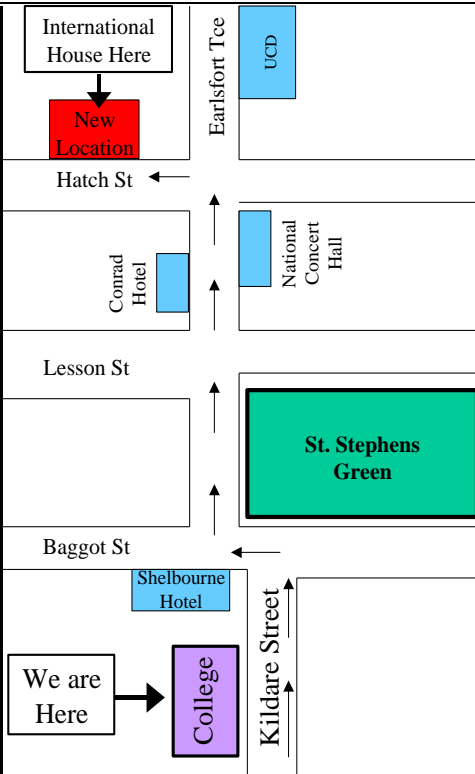

WE ARE RELOCATING
THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS OF IRELAND

We are temporarily relocating to :
International House,
20-22 Hatch Street,
Dublin 2.

Tel: 01-6616677 Fax: 01-6762920

www.rcpi.ie

The map shows the relocation of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland (RCSI) from its traditional location on College Street (marked 'We are Here') to a new location at International House on Hatch Street (marked 'New Location'). The map includes several streets: Hatch St, Lesson St, Baggot St, and Kildare Street. Landmarks shown include UCD, National Concert Hall, Conrad Hotel, St. Stephens Green, and Shelbourne Hotel. Arrows indicate the direction of travel and the new location.

Royal Academy of Medicine of Ireland

Section of Ophthalmology Meeting

2nd Floor, International House,
20-22 Lower Hatch St,
Dublin 2

Friday 21st November 2003

Programme

Sponsored By: Allergan
Alcon
Clarendon Medicine
Pfizer

11.30pm Council Meeting

12.00pm LUNCH (Sponsored Allergan)

Chairperson for the free papers - Mr Beatty, Secretary

1.00pm Mr. P. O'Brien, Dr. A. Bobart, Dr. P. Timoney, Dr. G. Lal, Dr. Susan Kennedy, Ms. Niamh McDonald, Dr. P. Murphy, Prof. L. Collum
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
An unusual increase in the incidence of Pseudomonas Aeruginosa Keratitis.

1.15pm Dr. Fatima Hamroush, Mr. Rob Acheson, Ms. Pat Logan
Mater Hospital
Visual loss in the normal eye

1.30pm Dr Susan Kennedy (guest lecture)
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
Review of Zimmerman Verhoff Society 2003

1.50pm Mr. P O'Reilly, Mr. F Di Tizio, Mr. F Kinsella
University College Hospital Galway
Outcome of Macular Hole Surgery in Patients without extensive posturing

2.05pm Ms G Cunniff, Mr B Beigi
Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital
Orbital Floor Fracture Repair using Enophthalmic Implants

2.20pm Dr R Khan, Dr U Behan, Mr D J Kilmartin
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
Primary Retinal Detachment Surgery presenting to a Mobile Theatre compared to a conventional Theatre

2.35pm Mr Iain Harrison, Mr Donal Brosnahan
Our Lady's Hospital
Incontinentia Pigmenti

2.50pm Mr S Issa, Mr S Beatty
Waterford Regional Hospital
The extent of change in important anterior segment characteristics and axial length after uneventful phaco and IOL insertion

3.05pm Mr. Paul O'Brien, Mr. A J Bogdan
Waterford Regional Hospital
The Influence of pharmacological mydriasis on slit-lamp biomicroscopic evaluation of the glaucomatous optic nerve head

3.20pm Dr Louise O'Toole
Moorefields Eye Hospital London
Retinal Angiomatous Proliferation (RAP) has characteristic findings on fundal examination differentiating it from other forms of macular degeneration

Please note that due to time constraints speakers are asked to stick to time allocated.

3.35pm TEA/COFFEE

Chairperson for case reports - Dr Curtin, President

CASE PRESENTATIONS

4.00pm Dr Aideen Hogan /Mr. D.J. Kilmartin
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
Humanised monoclonal antibody Campath (Alemtuzumab) in the treatment of sight threatening refractory idiopathic central retinal vasculitis

4.10pm Dr Catherine Cleary/Mr. Yusef/Dr Denise Curtin
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
A case of reduced visual acuity

4.20pm Dr Ismal Tuwir/ Dr. E. Chacko/ Prof. Lorraine Cassidy
Royal Victoria Eye and Ear Hospital
Autoenucleation in 19 years old male patient due to drug induced psychosis - with a neuro-ophthalmic surprise

